

BEAUTY AND ELEGANCE IN THE CENTRE OF PRAGUE

Centrally located on the south bank of the city, close to Prague Castle, the Charles Bridge and the vibrant Old Town, the Augustine Hotel is one of Europe's most remarkable hotels. Recognised as one of the most notable restoration projects the city has ever seen, the hotel was created from seven historic buildings dating from the 13th century and beyond. The shared cloistered terraces and vaults of the adjoining St Thomas Monastery have been carefully preserved to reflect the special history of the building. Elegant rooms inspired by the avant-garde Czech Cubism movement lookout over the city's rooftops to Prague Castle, the Wallenstein Garden and ancient courtyards. The spectacular St. Thomas Brewery Bar, housed in the cellar, comes complete with 17th century stalactites and stalagmites while the hotel spa offers a serene relaxation space.
